

Require verification requirements.

Users must authenticate.

Project managers can create projects.

Only project members can view project documents.

The system must generate user stories from uploaded requirements.

The system must notify the backend when processing completes.